MOORHEAD STUDENT STUDIES IN LONDON

MISSOULA--

John Kiffe, Moorhead, Minn., is studying in London, England, this spring as part of his education at the University of Montana in Missoula.

Kiffe, a junior in journalism at UM, is one of 70 students participating in the Northwest Interinstitutional Council on Study Abroad Program (NICSA), a consortium of universities in the Northwestern United States which coordinates several study abroad programs.

While in London, Kiffe will take liberal arts courses from professors from the participating schools and resident faculty in London and attend group excursions to Windsor, Canterbury and Bath. He lives with a British family while in London.

Kiffe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Kiffe of Moorhead, is a 1974 graduate of Moorhead High School.

Annual NICSA programs also include Avignon, France. Other study abroad programs operated by UM include Vienna, Austria, and Salamanca, Spain, in the spring and Burgundy, France, in the fall, and occasional programs in New Zealand, Russia and China. For more information, contact the UM Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, Liberal Arts 313, University of Montana, Missoula, MT 59812, or call (406) 243-2401.
